CAR SEATS BUYER'S GUIDE

Kids won't be protected by an adult seatbelt in a crash. The law says that children under 12 years of age must have a special seat if they're under 135cm in height and travelling in your car. It's crucial that you pick the right seat — it's all about your child's size and weight. There are dozens to choose from though, so take a look at the different types of car seat.

Types of child car seat

Baby car seats — These are rear-facing seats for babies. Read the Child Safety facts section about car seats on page 46.

Child car seats — Designed for kids who have outgrown the baby car seats, but aren't big enough for a booster seat.

Booster seats — Does your kid just need a 'boost' so that they can safely use an adult seatbelt? Then these are the right option for you.

Some car seats fall into more than one category. That's because they can be adapted as your child grows. They may cost a little more initially, but long-term, they're great value.

CHILD SAFETY FACTS

Safe and sound.

SEAT's accessory range of child seats meets the highest safety requirements, so you and your children can travel with total peace of mind.

What's ISOFIX?

ISOFIX is the international standard for attachment points for child safety seats in passenger cars. All new SEAT cars are now ISOFIX prepared. This means that an ISOFIX child seat can be plugged into the fixed connector incorporated in the vehicle structure. Thus enabling SEAT child safety seats to be quickly and safely secured.

* Children under 3 years must use the child restraint appropriate for their weight in all cars, vans and other goods vehicles, with the single exception of travelling in taxis; they cannot travel otherwise. This means for example that they may not travel in cars, vans or goods vehicles which do not have seatbelts installed. ** Examples. A 7-year-old who is 140cm tall is over the height for a child restraint and may use an adult seatbelt. A 12-year-old who is 130cm tall is over the age threshold and therefore may use an adult belt. *** If no seatbelts are fitted in the front, then children under 135cm in height (who are under 12 years of age) cannot travel in the front.

SEAT online tyre ordering

Our unique online tyre ordering tool will help you choose the best tyre in terms of price, fuel efficiency, grip in the wet and noise.

Simply go to www.seat.co.uk/tyres

All prices include fitting, balancing, value and environmentally-friendly old tyre disposal.

Save money

Choosing performance over budget tyres can have a dramatic impact on fuel consumption. Fitted with four A-rated tyres and driven at 50mph, you could save up to £110 or 80 litres of fuel per year, using 7.5% less fuel than with G-rated tyres. (Results can vary with the type of car and the climatic conditions.)

Tyre safety

Correct tyre and car maintenance is critical for your safety. As a driver of a vehicle it is your legal responsibility to ensure that the car tyres are safe and legal every time you get behind the wheel. Current UK law requires car drivers to have at least 1.6mm of tread across the central three-quarters of the tyre, around its entire circumference. The penalties for having illegal tyres are currently up to a £2,500 fine and three penalty points PER TYRE.

Free tyre check

For complete peace-of-mind visit your local SEAT dealer and take advantage of a free tyre check.

3 points

can be added to your licence for each illegal tyre

the maximum possible fine for each tyre if convicted for driving with illegal tyres

1.6mm

tyres in the UK, we recommend
